Whitehall, November 3.

THE Letters, of which the following are Copies and Extract, were received on Thursday last by the Manship, one of the Company's Ships.

Camp in Mysore, April 5, 1792.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to enclose a Copy of the Definitive Treaty* which has been concluded between the Three Confederate Powers and Tippoo Sultaun, accompanied with a Schedule* of the Names of the Districts that have been ceded by that Prince to the Allies respectively, to be laid before His Majesty.

I think it unnecessary to trouble you with a Repetition of the Contents of my Dispatch of this Date to the Court of Directors, which will come officially into your Hands: But I request that you will be pleased to communicate to His Majesty the Account contained in that Dispatch, of the Circumstances that occurred between the Signature of the Preliminary Articles and the Conclusion of the Definitive Treaty, and the Description that I have given of the Countries that have been ceded to the Company,

The Troops of the Allies will separate from us in a few Days, to return to their respective Countries; and I shall use my utmost Exertions to send all the Regiments of this Army to their Stations in the Company's Territories, and to reduce both the Native Troops and the different Public Departments to the Peace Establishment with as little Loss of Time as may be possible.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) CORNWALLIS.

Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, &c. &c. &c.

* Printed in the Gazette of the 21st of August last.

HONORABLE SIRS,

I Have the Honor to enclose a Copy of the Definitive Treaty which has been concluded with Tippoo Sultaun, conformably to the Tenor and Spirit of the Preliminary Articles which I transmitted to you by the last Dispatch, with a Copy of the Schedule, which was annexed to the Treaty, containing the Names of the Districts that have been ceded by Tippoo to the Allies.

You were informed by my Letter, dated the 4th Ultimo, that being aware that Tippoo would practise every possible Art to evade a strict Execution of his Engagements, I had determined to maintain the Posts that we occupied before Seringapatam, until every Arrangement for carrying the Preliminary Articles of Peace into full Effect could be completed; and I had soon Reason to believe that none of my Precautions were superfluous.

After sending out, by his Revenue Officers, some Statements of his Revenues, that were evidently fabricated and incorrect, and which consequently were rejected, he at last declared, that, owing to his having lost a great Number of his Papers in Places that had been taken by the Allies, or in his Camp on the Night of the Action, it was not in his Power to give a regular authenticated Account of the Revenues of different Districts of his Country, though he persevered in asserting that, after deducting the Expences of Collection, they did not much exceed Two Crore.

A Statement, therefore, was formed from the best Materials in the Possession of the Allies, which rated his Dominions at Two Crore and Sixty Lacs of net Revenue; and upon which it was proposed, that the

Division

[Price One Shilling.]

Diviſion of his Country ſhould be made according to the Terms of the Preliminary Articles; but, upon it's being produced, he poſitively objected to it's Correctneſs, offering, however, after ſome Diſcuſſions, to allow the Diviſion to take Place upon the Ground that his net Revenue amounted to ſomething above Two Crore and Thirty-ſeven Lacs; to which, with the entire Concurrence of Hurry Punt and Azeem ul Omrah, I judged it adviſeable to give my Aſſent.

Upon the Adjuſtment of this indiſpenſable Preliminary Point, further Difficulties were ſtarted, by his objecting, with great Warmth, to cede ſome of the Diſtricts which had been included by the Allies in the Selection of their reſpective Portions, and, above all others, his Repugnance to relinquiſh the Coorja Country, which I was determined to obtain for the Company, as being neceſſary to form a ſecure Barrier for our new Poſſeſſions on the Coaſt of Malabar againſt every Power above the Ghauts, appeared at one Time to be almoſt inſurmountable.

At this Stage of the Negociation the Allies were not only in Poſſeſſion of his Two Sons as Hoſtages, but alſo of above Eleven Hundred Thouſand Pounds of the Sum that he had agreed to pay, in ready Money, which I ſhould have conſidered as ſufficient Pledges from any other Man for the Performance of the Whole of the Preliminary Articles; but, faithleſs and violent as Tippoo's Character was known to be, I judged it incumbent upon me to be prepared to ſupport by Force, if it ſhould prove neceſſary, the Rights that we had acquired by the Preliminaries, and, with that View, I requeſted, in Addition to ſeveral other Meaſures, that Perſeram Bhow would croſs the Caveri and join General Abercromby, in order that we might be ready to act with Efficacy, and without Loſs of Time, againſt Seringapatam, if a Renewal of Hoſtilities ſhould become unavoidable; reſolving, at the ſame Time, that the Armies ſhould not quit the Poſitions that they occupied until the Articles of the Definitive Treaty ſhould be arranged and actually ſigned.

As any material Interruption, and ſtill more a total Breach in the Negociation, would have been attended with great Inconvenience to our Affairs, I was relieved from much Anxiety when Tippoo, upon further Reflection, withdrew all his Objections, and conſented, on the 16th Ultimo, to ſign the Definitive Treaty; and the firſt Payment of One Crore and Sixty-five Lacs of Rupees being alſo completed in a few Days, Perſeram Bhow repaſſed the River, and, after evacuating the Trenches and our Poſts upon the Iſland, all the Confederate Forces began to move from Seringapatam on the 26th Ultimo. The Orders for the mutual Ceſſion of Forts and Diſtricts, conformable to the Treaty, having alſo been previouſly interchanged, I truſt that in the Courſe of a few Weeks Tippoo will be in Poſſeſſion of the Dominions that are left to him, and that the Armies of the Allies will have returned within the new Boundaries of their reſpective Countries.

It muſt, no doubt, be highly gratifying to you, that a War, into which we were forced by every Conſideration of good Faith and ſound Policy, has not only terminated in the Reduction of the Strength of a Neighbour of great Power, and of the moſt inordinate Ambition, but alſo in ſecuring Acquiſitions to ourſelves, which, excluſive of their ineſtimable Value in Point of Situation, add conſiderably to your Revenues, and promiſe to open Sources of Commerce in Pepper, Cardamums, Teak, Sandal Wood, &c. that may be looked upon as of great Importance both to the Company and to the Nation.

By the Statement of Tippoo's Revenues, upon which it was finally agreed by all Parties that his Country ſhould be divided according to the Terms of the Preliminary Articles, the Company's Portion amounted to ſomething above Thirty-nine Lacs and a Half of Rupees of net Revenue; and by an Inſpection of the General Map you will readily perceive, that although, in order to reduce the Company's Share to that Sum, I was obliged to relinquiſh a few ſmall Diſtricts on the Top of the Ghauts, that properly belong to the Baramaul, but which are not neceſſary for the Security of our Frontier, I have availed myſelf of our Right of Selection by demanding and obtaining for the Company's Portion, Countries, that are both ſtrong in themſelves, and peculiarly well calculated to form a Barrier to your antient Poſſeſſions.

The Diſtricts ceded to us on the Coaſt of Malabar conſiſt of the Whole of the Tract of Country below the Ghauts, laying between Travencore and the Kaway River, which is our Northern Boundary; and they are ſo fortunately ſituated, that it will be difficult, if not impoſſible, for Tippoo, or any future Sovereign of Myſore, to diſturb them.

Palicautcherry commands the only Road by which an Army can approach them from the Carnatic Side; the only Paſſes that lead into them from the Myſore Country, viz. the Tambercherry and Pondicherrum Paſſes, are, from their belonging to our Tributaries, in Reality, in our own Poſſeſſion; and the Northern Frontier is, from the Ruggedneſs of the Country, and from it's being interſected with a Number of deep Ravines and ſeveral conſiderable Rivers, exceedingly inacceſſible.

Dindigul conſtitutes a ſubſtantial Protection to the Southern Provinces; and by the Acquiſition of the Baramaul, and of the Country, which, though compoſed of ſeveral different Diſtricts, is commonly called the Salem Country, which gives us the Command of all the Paſſes of the Ghauts to the Northward of the Caveri, we have obtained an effectual Barrier to the Carnatic againſt all future Invaſions from the Weſtward; and, excluſive of the principal Forts of Sankerydroog, Namcool, Attoor, Kiſtnagherry, and Ryacotta, which no Power in India could take from us, and which an invading Army could not paſs without hazarding the Loſs of it's Supplies, there are a Number of ſmaller Forts in thoſe Diſtricts that, in caſe of a temporary Irruption of a Corps of Cavalry, would be capable of affording great Protection to the Perſons and Property of the Inhabitants.

Had the Extent of our Share of the Ceſſions made by Tippoo admitted of it, I ſhould have had great Satisfaction in adding the Country of Coimbatoor to to the Company's other Poſſeſſions, principally for the Purpoſe of depriving the Myſore Power of all Footing below the Ghauts, on the Carnatic Side: But the Diſappointment is of the leſs Conſequence as it is a defenceleſs open Country, which, in caſe of a future Rupture, nothing leſs than Tippoo's whole Force could attempt to defend againſt us, and from which he could not, without the greateſt Difficulty and Danger, venture to invade the Carnatic.

A Paſs, called the Coveriporam Paſs, is marked upon ſome of the Sketches of that Part of the Country; but as it does not appear that Tippoo, or his Father, ever brought Guns down that Paſs, there is no good Reaſon to ſuppoſe that it is at preſent, or that it could could eaſily be made practicable for an Army; and having lately had Occaſion to order a Detachment to aſcend the Guzzlehatty Paſs, we have had an Opportunity to aſcertain that it is, of all the Paſſes leading into the Carnatic, by much the moſt ſteep and difficult.

The Nature, therefore, of the Paſs by which his Artillery and Stores muſt come from Myſore, would prove no inconſiderable Obſtacle to Tippoo in forming a Deſign againſt the Carnatic from that Quarter; and, as I truſt that he could neither take Dindigul, Trichinopoly, Tanjore, Sankerydroog, or Namcul, which are our Frontier Forts on that Side, I look upon it to be almoſt impoſſible that he, or any of his Succeſſors, will venture to paſs the Coleroon with an Army into the Center of the Carnatic, leaving their Supplies and Communications of all Kinds expoſed to be attacked and interrupted by the Garriſons of the Places that I have mentioned, ſupported by Bodies of Troops that might be ſtationed for the Purpoſe under their Cover and Protection.

I am convinced that Sir Charles Oakley and General Abercromby will ſelect the moſt capable and truſt-worthy of your Servants to manage the newly acquired Territories; and General Abercromby agreed ſo perfectly with me that it was of the utmoſt Importance for the National Character, and for the Intereſt of the Company, that we ſhould commence our Government of the Countries on the Coaſt of Malabar upon a good Plan, that it was concerted between us, that it would be moſt prudent, before we divided them finally into Diſtricts, to appoint Commiſſioners to make a temporary Settlement with all the Chiefs for this Seaſon, and then to proceed upon an active and earneſt Inveſtigation of the Amount of Revenue that thoſe Acquiſitions are capable of paying, the Extent of the different Articles of Commerce, the Nature of the Tenures of the Rajahs or other Chiefs, and the Claſſes and Numbers of the Inhabitants, in order that the Supreme Government may be enabled from their Reports, and the Obſervations and Suggeſtions of the Government of Bombay, to propoſe a Syſtem for the future Management of that Country, which may include Rules for the Conduct of the Revenue and Commercial Departments, and, above all, for a ſtrict and impartial Adminiſtration of Juſtice: And, as many of the Bengal Servants have had great Experience in conducting the internal Buſineſs of extenſive Indian Provinces, it is my Intention to depute Two of thoſe in whom I can place particular Confidence, as ſoon as the Change of the Monſoon will render it practicable, to join Two Commiſſioners that General Abercromby will, at my Recommendation, appoint, immediately to commence upon the Undertaking that I have deſcribed, and to aſſiſt in collecting the neceſſary Materials, and in framing the Report that will be expected from them.

That Coaſt has been in a State of great Diſtraction and Confuſion ſince the Time that Tippoo's Troops, and the Officers of his Government, were driven out of it; the Two great and inimical Claſſes of the People, the Nairs and Moplas, being almoſt at open War with each other, and great Diſſentions about Boundaries, and revived old Claims prevailing amongſt the Nair Rajahs themſelves; but as General Abercromby will immediately, upon deſcending the Ghauts, detach Troops into the different Diſtricts, I hope that I ſhall ſoon hear that Tranquillity has been reſtored, and the Company's Authority completely eſtabliſhed throughout all theſe Countries.

I ſhall defer giving a final Opinion reſpecting the Military Eſtabliſhment that will be neceſſary in future, until I can be more minutely informed than I am at preſent of the Condition of the Forts, and the internal State of the Countries that we have acquired; but I am much inclined to believe that the whole of the Augmentation in the Native Troops, that was made at the Commencement of the War, may be reduced with the utmoſt Safety.

I am at preſent buſily occupied in ſending the heavy Artillery, Stores, Sick, &c. &c. down the Ghauts, in order to enable me to evacuate the Forts that are to be reſtored to Tippoo; and although I ſhall now have it almoſt daily in my Power to diſcharge ſome of the Public Servants and Bullocks, I ſhall not be able to reduce the Departments completely to the Peace-Eſtabliſhment, until the Arrival of the Troops at the Cantonments that will be allotted for them in our own Territories: But it muſt give you very great Satisfaction to hear that there neither is at preſent, nor will be at their Arrival in Quarters, One ſingle Rupee of Arrears due to the Troops, or to any of the Public Departments, and that the Accounts of all Deſcriptions of Military Expenditure are ſo cloſely brought up, that I can at preſent ſee no good Reaſon to prevent the Three Preſidencies from making up, in the Courſe of the next Six Months at fartheſt, diſtinct Statements of the Whole of the extraordinary Expences that have been incurred by the War.

A ſmall extra Expence muſt be continued to ſome of the Bombay Troops that will be obliged to remain in Huts, to be made by themſelves, during the next Rains, on the Coaſt of Malabar; and the Bengal Native Troops muſt alſo draw Field Allowances until they return to their Cantonments in Bengal, which cannot happen before January next; but both theſe Articles may be eſtimated with ſufficient Correctneſs to be introduced in the general Statements of extraordinary Expence.

Perſeram Bhow, with the Corps under his immediate Command, proceeded directly from Seringapatam towards his own Country, and Hurry Punt, and the Nizam's Son and Miniſter, will ſeparate from this Army in a few Days. General Abercromby commenced his March to the Coaſt of Malabar on the 26th Ultimo, and was, on the ſame Day, joined by Captain Little's Detachment, which had only been engaged to ſerve with the Maratta Army during the War.

I have the Honor to be, with great Reſpect,
Honorable Sirs,
Your moſt obedient, and
moſt humble Servant,
CORNWALLIS.

Camp in Myſore, April 5, 1792.

P. S. Since the above Letter was written, Captain Reynolds has, to my great Satisfaction, been able to finiſh the Sketch, that accompanies this Diſpatch, of the Whole of the Countries that have been ceded by Tippoo to the Allies reſpectively, excepting the Diſtrict of Soondoon, which belongs to the Portion that fell to the Marattas, but of the Extent and Poſition of which it has not been in his Power to obtain preciſe Information.

Tippoo's Country having been divided according to its Revenue and not its Extent, it will be obvious to you that the Nizam and the Marattas could not, in the highly cultivated and fertile Countries in which their Portions were claimed, receive the ſame Number of Square Miles that fell to the Company, as in our Portion the Coorga Country is included, which pays only a ſmall and limited Tribute; and there are conſiderable Tracts of hilly and barren Ground in ſeveral of our other Diſtricts; and, for ſimilar Reaſons, the Diviſion left to Tippoo greatly exceeds, in the Number of ſquare Miles, the Whole of that which was ceded to the Allies, as the rugged and unproductive Countries of Myſore and Chittledroog conſtitute the principal Portion of the Dominions that remain in his Poſſeſſion.

To the Honorable Court of Directors for Affairs of the Honorable the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the Eaſt Indies.

HONORABLE SIRS,

HAVING obſerved, ſince the Arrival of the Nottingham, that a Letter of mine to Sir Charles Oakeley has been publiſhed, in which I mention to him, that, in Addition to the Money that would be required to ſupply our own Wants, I ſhould have Occaſion for Twelve Lacks of Rupees to lend to the Marattas; and having ſome Doubts whether the official Papers that will be tranſmitted to you this Seaſon from Bombay will clearly explain the Nature of that Loan, I have thought that it may be ſatisfactory to you to know, by this Opportunity, that it was merely an Advance of ſo much Money, to be repaid by the Peſhwa.

When Hurry Punt and Perſeram Bhow conſented to keep the Field during the Rains, and to aſſiſt me in ſupporting our Communications and in maintaining Poſſeſſion of a large Tract of the Enemy's Country, they ſtated to me their Apprehenſions, that, on Account of the great Diſtance from Poona, they might, unleſs aſſiſted, ſuffer great Diſtreſs from Want of Money to pay their Troops; and, in order to obviate all Difficulties on their Part, I readily promiſed to furniſh the above mentioned Twelve Lacks, for Bills to be drawn by Hurry Punt upon the Peſhwa, at the current Rate of Exchange between Madras and Bombay, and made payable to the Bombay Government at Bombay.

The Money was accordingly advanced to Hurry Punt at different Times, in the Courſe of a few Months after the Arrival of the Confederate Armies in the Neighbourhood of Bangalore; and Bills upon the Peſhwa were regularly granted for each Payment at the Rate of Exchange which was declared at Madras to be then current between the Two Places.

I could, without Unfairneſs, have made additional Charges againſt them for the Expence of tranſporting the Money from Madras to the Army, and for Intereſt during the Time that it was upon the Road; but it appeared to me that thoſe Articles were of too trifling a Nature to be introduced in a Tranſaction between Two States; and, whilſt it was perfectly ſuitable to us to make a Remittance to Bombay through that Channel, I had the Pleaſure, at an inſignificant Expence to the Company, to lay the Marattas under what they conſidered to be a very great Obligation.

I have the Honor to be, with great Reſpect,
Honorable Sirs,
Your moſt obedient and moſt
humble Servant,
CORNWALLIS.

Extract of a Letter from the Governor and Council of Fort St. George, in their Political Department, to the Court of Directors, dated May 25, 1792.

WE have the Pleaſure to inform your Honorable Court, that all the Forts ceded to the Company by the late Definitive Treaty of Peace with Tippoo Sultaun, in the Baramhaul and Salem Countries, have been delivered up, and that we have ſent Inſtructions to Major Cuppage (at the Deſire of Lord Cornwallis) to return to the Carnatic, with the preſent Garriſon of Palicautcherry, as ſoon as the Troops ſent by General Abercromby to take Poſſeſſion of the Fort, ſhall arrive at that Place. Orders have been ſince given by his Lordſhip for breaking up the Detachment.

At the Recommendation of Lord Cornwallis we have iſſued a Proclamation regarding the Renewal of a Commercial Intercourſe between the Carnatic and Myſore Countries; and directing that Merchants of all Deſcriptions belonging to the Myſore Country be henceforward permitted to enter the Carnatic, and to carry on their Dealings with this Settlement, or with any Part of the Territory of the Company or their Allies, under the ſame Privileges which they enjoyed before the late War.
